

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

* * *

Wendell Brown,

Case No. 2:24-cv-00867-CDS-DJA

Plaintiff,

Order

V.

Bank of America, N.A.; et al.,

Defendants.

11 Before the Court is pro se Plaintiff Wendell Brown’s motion “for leave to file certificate
12 of interested parties out of time.” (ECF No. 21). Plaintiff seeks the Court’s leave to file his 13 certificate of interested parties late, explaining that because he is representing himself, he did not
14 realize he had missed the deadline. The Court finds that Plaintiff has demonstrated good cause
15 and excusable neglect and grants Plaintiff’s request. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b).

17 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Plaintiff's motion (ECF No. 21) is granted. The 18 Clerk of Court is kindly directed to detach Plaintiff's certificate of interested parties (ECF No. 21-
19 1) and file it on the docket. The Clerk of Court is also kindly directed to send Plaintiff a copy of 20 this order.

DATED: June 10, 2024

DANIEL J. ALBREGTS
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE